We will consider it a great favor if subscribers will report any tallure to get their Leader, or a y carelessness on the par of the carrier.

Subscribers will please not pay the carriers unless the carrier punches his credit tag in subscrib-

THURSDAY, DEC. 17, 1896

THE Cuban button now has the call to Spain, and that a man who loves Captain General.

HON. C. H. GROSVENOR is slated for Chairman of Ways and Means, the most important committee in Congress. This will be another honor to the Buckeye State.

Athens, and well known here, is a Rethe strongest candidate in the field.

ALEXANDER SALVINI, the great romantic actor, son of Tomasso Salvini, death is a heavy loss to the stage as he school. was one who occupied a position among

A UNIQUE VILLAGE.

It Is Almost Ideal in Many Ways-Two Beautiful Boulevards.

Along the Second street pike, just beyoud the village of Bethayres and 11/2 miles from Huntington Valley station, on the Newton railroad, John Pitenira, a wentaty Philadelphian, founded a little settlement several years ago for Swedenbergious, or members of the Church of the New Jerusalem. He bought a large tract of had, built a fine house and surrounded it with conty, attracted others of his faith, who wiewed with favor the loss of the secturing community. They seemed tob menercy a square mile in entent, and on more are to join it, only conting a favorable opportunity to halfd.

preximity to that old term. In C. Is ever andier defend from a windfull. Many other and others Philadelphia Record.

of Hilliam, is improveded visit pillars. the ringing of one of the bold of the tower. When the bell is rangelt emmen the sentiment, in the last sixty y the top of this pillar to was, to the ess on the question of free popular es tent of seven inches on ve hands, ale tion, we need but to read the Fifth movable; and the stones per ro firmly cemetited as to seem like a solid piece of mesonry. Although evels of the four boths betrim any seein whom the came distimes from the translates parties, only one of them is any classes of the ringing of the others of ar small, or be doubt, looked with district up

Institution a low years also in the ellion mines as Laurlani, The judger find been may traveled the traveled for the most part of the "sleg" postured by the world traveled for the most part of the "sleg" postured by the world traveled for the most part of the contained plenty of altern which could could not control. vigorously as ever, without the add of a shorter drop of water or any restora- is worthy of note that the most effective other than the zero of the sun.—

Popular Science News — men was by giving their schools a transles, and does it quickly.

No need to suffer with rhoumatian, immage, neuralgia, cramps or a distance of the sun.—

Popular Science News — men was by giving their schools a transles, and does it quickly.

Panad phir, Nov. 27, 1896.

[Remarks by M. R. ANDREWS.]

our whole country.

on all other buttons of adornment, and University, experience as a tutor, the clearly set forth in the educational they will soon be seen on many lapels, study and practice of law, an honor- classics, his Annual Reports. He saw Ir is said that Weyler may be called spired and guided by a boundless faith would do little good to the child who extra heat. blood even better will succeed the had made a statesman and a teacher "The sentiments and passions," said

Hon. EMMET Tompkins, formerly of Its philosophy rejecting that mediaeval Thus he presented the Doctrine of Inasceticism which regarded the body as terest, but without the use of the capipublican candidate for Mayor of the the mere prison of the soul, returned tal I. city of Columbus. He is considered to the ancient ideal of a sound mind died in Florence, Italy, Tuesday. His in the course of study for every public ties of the true reformer, enthusiasm, highest political freedom, unselfishness and courage. The boy-ish castles in the air were transformed published. His impressions of the published. His impressions of the less. Burdock Blood Bitters is nature's education. That vision grew brighter tive as when they were first written. and brighter through all the long Horace Mann lived to see normal years of toll and struggle. Behind the schools, teacher's institutes and educadarkest clouds of opposition he saw gleams of the rising sun already fore- influence, an important part of a systelling the approach of a brighter day. tem in his own state, and adopted in fails Cheered by such a hope, he shrank many others. He saw town after town from no sacrified; borrowing from the grade their classes and found a high veniences. The country, naturally pret- future, he showed the zeal of a mar- school. New and better buildings. ter and the courage of a sold er.

free thought he was not mone. In the substantial proof that he had awaken-Board of Education, for larger or ed the public conscience. In these shorter periods, were Edward Everett, buildings, bireliteards and other new Jaced Sparles, Reliest Rantoul, Charles appliances were found. Under his di-Hudson, George Hall, Emerson Davis, rection the members of the State Board Barnes Seam, George Putnam and Good read and carefully selected books B. Emerson. In Massachusetts, at which they thought worthy of a place thought to unit a man for call chienel once of that movement reached Ohio a and practical educations work. Isw years later and caused our legisla-Among the faithful coanselors Educated ture to make two purchases of tooks Bwight deserves special mention: His for district Horacles. Some mistakes private resources were Ireely spent in in the details of that law caused a the cause of reform. He supported clamor for its resent-a clamar our Mr. Mann's request for Normal Schools Inwanditors were prompt to hard. In by offering ten thousand dollars if the spite of these mistakes, many at as tributed liberally to support horner first bilastel peop into the best trens-Mann in the misalonary wors for which ures of literature, possist in estling the state had appropriated one thou that law the wisest ever passed in Ohio. and address a year-a same, even then. If a stranger were to sair us to show baryly sufficient to pay the expanses of a monument to Boraco Mann, we might

The phygardly pelicy of the state to: every village the largest, and often the rentest place, was an indication of a literature of all the worth. The best the general spatisy concerning the trusters are sought for those ichouls a popular education. The localitators and are no longer composed by a select fall y represented the people. The tree gase. Even the vanial democratue per classes, as they loved to call them- spares, the public school ? selves, cored for their own children in himse-private or endoved schools. Pahumbler neighbors they thous free or poor schools were alread cleat. It is glory enough for a Mann that his labor and int transformed the wretched gift-The Church of St. Nicolas, in the city grading charity into the great; school, now the pride of the rick as well as of the poor. To apore how great has been the change in nual Report.

There were other obstacles la way of progress, those whom he e biligors and vanuals" The "bigs. were the ecclesinstical successors the Purlan fathers, and some of the struped so far from the old path. B the lutuleranes in that day, was as the on one side. It Hornes Mante ba the tribe would "rather be buyon" - june 1988 a little" time to been to three Ceivinentity is removed by a altern applie. There were others in the rathes of the furnace the next wide notice mine in they called the motives, some of the furnace the next wide notice mine in they called the motives, some of the furnace the next wide notice mine a most gorpoons show of peoples from the seed left under the slag when the ridiculed all new theories. They had done E, Blair and Olya Steame conturing rest they had bloomed as nothing more to learn. Such "practi- both of Marletta.

MARIETTA DAILY LEADER A Symposium on Hunca Mann, New practical test in the form of a written examination.

The Secretary's suggestions seemed to man in his time, startling and revolutionary. Even now to conservative In discussing the topic, Horace Mann minds they would appear subversive as an Educator-as a leader in educa- of the old order. There is scarcely a tional progress-we may properly limit flower of the New Education whose our view to the period between 1837 seeds have not been scattered by Horand 1845, covered by his twelve annual nee Mann In his Sixth Report he anreports as Secretary of the Massachu- ticipated Herbert Spencer's essay, setts Board of Education. It is the "What Knowledge is of Most Worth." work of those twelve years that makes The true relation of sense perception an epoch in the educational history of to all teaching worthy of the name. The land on which they were grown. the recognition of activity as the law At the age of forty-three he entered of childhood, the almost boundless recently collected from many sources upon his great work with a prepara- possibilities in geography well taught. tion which could not have been in- the need of complete literary works proved if, for twenty years, it had instead of detached featments for been consciously directed to that spec- school renders, the unification of forhal end. A collegiate course at Brown mal and nature studies-all these are able service as State Senator, all in- that the mere ability to read and write owing to the expansion caused by the in the possibilities of human progress, had received no training in morals. "thoroughly furnished unto all good be, "get more lessons than the intelleet" and he insisted that neither kind His science of education owed much of lessons should be left to chance. He ming should be treated like one apto "Combe's Constitution of Man," a saw that only as desire is awakened in parently drawingd. book seldom read in this generation, the mind of the child can that mind but sixty years ago a favorite with the acquire any real knowledge, that the most thoughtful and earnest students. | drill-sergeant is not the ideal teacher.

We may almost claim him among the in a sound body. To this source we founders of an American Kindergarten, can trace Horace Mann's enthusiastic since among his eighty thousand school love for physiology as a study, and his children were more than seven thouearnest plea that it might be inserted sand who were less than four years of age. In one of his reports he presents ar-To the complete intellectual training guments to prove that compulsory edfor his position were added the quali- ucation is not inconsistent with the into visions of a realm of peace and schools he visited in Europe, even after own remedy for troubles of this sort. happiness to be founded on popular the lapse of fifty years, are as sugges-constructed with some thought for the In the buttle for free schools and health and comfort of the pupils, gave least, a Thorat education was not in a public school Horary. The inflajustly say, "Look pround you." In SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY.

-Pellem, being more permanent than brydregen, is a new thermometric substance for very low temperatures. By using electric light during the grown under the natural conditions year near Grand Island, Neb., that farmers have cleared on their crops twice the amount needed to pay for all containing altrogen, with appear ently, about the same proportion of nerou an in obtainable from the nitrogen den and Ellisburgh (a distance of 400 nelles) are 2.0 yards longer in summer than they are in winter. This is -In many cases where artificial restration is our toyed, a man apparently killed by electricity or Ughtning can be resuse inted. A man struck by light-

-The purchase of a 500-acre let near London, to be gradually covered by an unmense ethnological museum, isurged by Prof. Plinders Petrie, who finds existing museums for too small to receive the materials explorers are so rapidly unearthing.

-The British South African company has secured to the British empire 750,-000 square miles, which would otherwise now be held by the Boers, Germans and Portuguese. It has opened out this vast territory, built seven towns, and completed 1,400 miles of telegraph line, about 1,000 miles of road and 3,000 miles of rallway.

Constipation is the cause of all sorts

Thousands are suffering excruciating misery from that plague of the night, Itching Piles, and say nothing

SUPPER UNTOLD MISERIES. BRADFIELD'S

PEMALE REGULATOR. ACTS AS A SPECIFIC

By Arcusing to Healthy Action all her Organs. 2 It causes health to bloom, and to reign throughout the frame ... It Never Falls to Regulate ...

BRADITELD PEG LATOR CO., Atlanta, Ca. &

personanananan

ULSTERS.

We have a large stock of them: ALL this year's purchase. You can buy any of them at deptine Prof. Enliey produced Tiles year's purchase. Tou can buy any of them at fully two weeks before the plants MANUFACTURERS prices. Also heavy and medium weight Beaver and Kersey Overcoats -Sugar Beets have thrived so this in Blue, Black, and Brown, at from $4.00 up to $12.00, all at BARGAIN PRICES.

Mon's Suits in all seades, qualities, and prices - Specimens of fire damp have been from $3.00 to $12.00, for the choice the best suits in our house, that others call $18.00 to $22.00 Suits. We will make prices to suit you on all our Boys and Childrens Suits and Over-The railway metals between Lon- coats, odd Coats, Pants, and Vests, Underwear

> Just bear in midd we are going to sell ALL OF them regardless of profits.

> > S. R. Van Metre & Co.

Reliable Cash Glothiers. Wholesale

Retail

Winter Wraps!

It's the assortment of Capes and Jackets that makes the showing most attractive. It's the little prices that cause the rapid selling. It's the time to buy now before the best are gone, and the place is

Jenvey & Allen,

168 Front st, Marietta, O

Colonial Book Store!

The popular verdict has already been rendered upon our stock, we hear on every hand the remark

Such Beautiful Goods, Such Very Low Prices.

We have an unusually fine line of NEW THINGS, neat, pretty, novel and nostly inexpensive. To enumerate-

PANEL PICTURES, BISQUE WARE, CELLULOID GOODS, an endless line of Novelthes—the B, and H, Lamp in latest patterns—the finest stationery with Heraldic designs.

All the late and popular noons, with many old friends in new and attractive dress. Books are wonderfully cheap, always a desirable gift, Dr. Dickinson's history of the First Congregational Church would make a desirable Christmas gift, we have it.

CHRISTMAS CARDS, BOOKDETS, CALENDARS, &c. The line of CHILDREN'S Books and games is very large, the weeks are prettier and cheaper than We have what you want and many things you cannot get elsewhere.

We give PERIODICAL TICKETS on cash sales.

153 Colonial Block, Front St.

J. E. VANDERVOORT,

DAMAGED MATERIAL 871120

and convenits RESULTS. does it better t has placed e estimation grapher who n he sees it.

cal Co.,

It was hardly liberal or generous for this action to say, "The from bars of Orthodoxy do not slow a man to examinate the qualities independent for tending the common heart of man."

The "randmis" were probably the president politicians who religiously the president politicians are the properties. They do not worked by the president politicians are the properties.

beencesessessed

Confectioners and Fruit Dealers.

We conflictly levite you to call and Inspect our endless variety of mixed cardies and note suitable for cherch and school entertainments, which we offer at wholesale figures. Don't full to get our prices before buying.
A carboid of busines just menived; also a fine lot of other fruits. Candles from 5 cents per pound, up. MAGNANI & LIPPI Patrim street, Marietta, O.

ALL KINDS

Cooks and Heaters TO BURN

WOOD + COML + OR + GAS

Our line of GAS STOVES the largest. handsomest and best. No old styles to push off onto unsuspecting customers. All purchased this year and up-